Democracy is At Risk

Floridians for Democracy began in May 2023 with a clear purpose to help protect our Democracy.
Today, the threats have intensified.

- Threats to Social Safety: Programs like Medicare, Medicaid, and food assistance (e.g., SNAP) are facing potential cuts, putting vulnerable populations at risk.
- Immigration Policy and Human Rights: Increasing deportations, detentions, and unfair (often inhumane) treatment of immigrants raise serious ethical and legal concerns.
- Defunding of Public Institutions: Key government departments, such as Education, are experiencing budget reductions impacting public services and accessibility.
- Relaxation of Gun Regulations: Easing firearm restrictions has led to ongoing debates about public safety, individual rights, and unnecessary loss of lives.
- Taking Voting Rights Away: Legislative changes in several states have sparked fears of voter suppression and reduced democratic participation.
- Civil Rights at Risk: Traditionally marginalized populations and LGBTQ+ individuals, among others, are seeing their rights challenged or rolled back in areas like healthcare, education, and legal protections.
